

Guided of Tour of Plunkett Museum of Education

Time: 2.00pm and 3.15pm Sunday, 22nd April

Venue: Church of Ireland Training College, Kildare Place

Admission: Free

The Plunket Museum is housed in the old stable yard in the Church of Ireland College of Education. It consists of a model national school classroom of around 1900, as well as a collection of pictures, photographs and school artifacts of Irish education since early times up to the twentieth century.

Susan Parkes is a former senior Lecturer of Education at TCD and Hon Archivist at the Church of Ireland College of Education.